Workshop Description

This acclaimed workshop was designed with ACT’s guidance. It will help students (grades 9-12) prepare for the real “ACT with Writing” test and essay. Students will:

- *Learn specifically how one’s ACT score and GPA impact college admissions and scholarships.
- *Learn proven “ACT with Writing” test taking and essay strategies.
- *Take an authentic, full-length (3 ½ hours), strictly timed, “ACT with Writing” practice test and essay. The practice test and essay we use is a recently used real ACT test and essay.
- *Build ACT test familiarity, time management skills and confidence, and may reduce test anxiety.
- *Learn a highly effective self-help method for correcting and understanding one’s test mistakes. It is designed to help students take ownership and achieve better scores on practice and real ACT tests

A special feature of the workshop is students will receive their practice test scores and score improvement tips at the end of the workshop. Writing scores and a workshop summary are emailed to parents within 2-3 days.
