Old Business:

Sports Raffle 2013/14 Sales update. (Eva Pung) - Sold 209 for the year. Discussion surrounded increasing sales. We still need to sell the remaining 90. Question if anyone was willing/able to sell any at this point. If you think you can sell any, please contact Sue Bosworth who has the extra raffle tickets. Discussion not to sell after Jan. 1, 2013

Fall Fest – Raffle sales were down significantly from previous years; dinner sales were up slightly.

Bus Drivers Needed (Neil Miros) - Need Boys Basketball bus driver - contact Neil Miros if you are interested.

Assistant AD Position Descriptions (Carol/Neil) – Suggestion to have people “shadow” first game to find out where everything is. Add prayer to beginning of games for high school level. See Tricia Beachnau for cash boxes.

We need a volunteer to take over the Concession Coordinator Position – This involves ordering and coordinating the concession supplies for all the sports. Approximately one hour per week. If you can do this, please contact Neil Miros

50/50 Deb Miros reported license for winter sports are all set up

Winter Assistant AD/Concession/Gate worker sign-up - (Neil) - Varsity and JV Girls Basketball - Jon and Jean Shattuck; Varsity/JV Boys Basketball: Eva Pung and Doug Smith; 5/6 girls volleyball - Tricia Beachnau; Freshmen boy basketball - Jim Goodman; 5/6 boys basketball - Keith Schneider; 7/8 Boys Basketball: Mollie Leahy, Dawn Arwood and Audra Pline; 7/8 girls basketball: Carol Gunderman and Kim Schrauben

New Business:

Shamrock Auction (Eva Pung and Neil Miros) – Theme “Fanatic Fan”. Auction meetings are open to anyone. There is not a firm date for the next meeting.

Spring Scrap Metal Drive – March 29, 2014 – More workers need to be scheduled for this event in the spring.

Meeting adjourned at 6:55pm with prayer. Amy Smith motioned. Gayle Thelen second.
